SUMMARY

Experienced Bartender with 15+ years of experience in field. Strong ability to improve team performance and grow bar sales through exceptional customer service and leadership skills. Returning to my passion of computer science and ready to shift gears and learn everything I can to add value to a company I can stand behind. With my combined skills of customer service, problem solving on the fly and my new found technical skills and deep desire to continue learning I believe I will be an asset to the right team.
